Persons like all of the Gosvamis wrote so many books, Visvanatha Cakravarti, and all the acaryas wrote books, and still I am writing books. Similarly, also my disciples will write. So any self-realized soul can write unlimited books without deviating from the original ideas.

- Srila Prabhupada's Letter to: Satsvarupa -- Mayapur 28 February, 1972

All our men should write. Otherwise how we shall know that he has understood the philosophy? Writing means sravanam, kirtanam. Sravanam means hearing from the authority and again repeat it. This is our business, sravanam kirtanam visnoh [SB 7.5.23], about Vishnu, not for any politician or any other man.

- Srila Prabhupada's Arrival Conversation in Car & Room -- June 20, 1975, Los Angeles

In a talk in Los Angeles, in 1972, Prabhupada told everyone, ‘Realisation means you should write, every one of you. What is your realisation? You write your realisation, what you have realised about Krsna. That is required. It is not passive, always you should be active. Whenever you find time, write. Never mind two lines, four lines, but you write your realisations, sravanam-kirtanam. Writing or offering prayers, glories, this is one of the functions of a Vaisnava. You are hearing, but you have to write also. Then writing becomes sravanam, remembering what you have heard from your spiritual master.’

MOTHERS & MASTERS
Preach Now, Varṇāśrama-dharma Now

Mothers & Masters presents traditionalist arguments for the direction of the Kṛṣṇa consciousness movement, proposing that we should take up Śrīla Prabhupāda’s mandate to establish varṇāśrama-dharma rather than capitulate to the norms and ideologies of secular culture. Particularly discussed are gender roles, parental responsibilities, feminist follies, and some of Śrīla Prabhupāda’s more controversial teachings, such as those concerning early marriage, divorce, and polygamy.

Topics Include:
- The Direction of Kṛṣṇa Consciousness Movement
- Devotees need Varṇāśrama-dharma
- ISKCON’s Disconnect with Varṇāśrama
- Śrīla Prabhupāda’s Outlook Was Not Mundane
- Slaughterhouse-education and Child Labour
- Women as Leaders
- Fulfilling Women's Potential - As Mothers
- Homemakers and Working Wives
- Discouraging Divorce Among Devotees
- Why Śrīla Prabhupāda Opposed Feminism
- Respect for Women in Indian Culture
- The Transformation of Women's Roles
- Duties of Married Men
- Sex, Dissatisfaction, and Family Decline
- Why Women Need Protection
  and many more..

Book Reviews:
A must-read for every member of our ISKCON Society. If we simply ignore this book as irrelevant or fanatical, our tendency as a religious movement will no doubt be to adopt the spirit of modernism, thus inviting calamity upon our spiritual progress, both individually and collectively.

Phalini Devi Dasi (ACBSP), India/USA

I agree with every line of this wonderful book Women: Masters or Mothers? In ISKCON, I am always looking for women who can inspire us with their personal examples of being good mothers and at the same time maintaining good sādhana. I find the actions of such mothers speaking louder than the voice of the women sitting in front of the microphone and delivering lectures.

WHO IS SUPREME?

Who, if any, among the plethora of gods and goddesses in the ‘Hindu pantheon’ is supreme?

Who Is Supreme? tackles this riddle—not with the pabulum and word jugglery characteristic of many of today’s popular gurus, but with a straightforward and lucid analysis of the seminal sources of Vedic knowledge, including the Purāṇas and other corollary texts.

Herein the author (Gokul Candra Dasa) has presented the essence of that vast lore, as per the teachings of His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, the foremost exponent of Vedic culture in the modern age.

Available in English, Tamil, and Hindi (Newly Printed).

परम भगवान् कौन?
(WHO IS SUPREME? - Hindi)
“वैदिक शास्त्रों में कई देवी-देवताओं का वर्णन है। कभी-कभी हिंदुओं की आलोचना की जाती है की ‘हिंदुओं के कई भगवान हैं।’ पर वे वास्तविक परम भगवान नहीं हैं। यदि कोई उपनिषदों का गंभीर छात्र है, तो उसे यह जात होगा की सभी देवी-देवताओं का वर्णन पूर्ण पुरुषोत्तम भगवान श्री कृष्ण के सेवक के रूप में किया गया है।” वैदिक शास्त्रों में 33 करोड़ देवी-देवताओं का वर्णन है। यदि इनमें से कोई परम है, तो वो कौन है?

Rethinking DARWIN
A Vedic study of Darwinism and Intelligent Design

In Rethinking DARWIN, Danish science writer Leif A. Jensen (Lalitänātha Dāsa) in collaboration with leading Intelligent Design proponents points out flaws in the Darwinian paradigm and examines the case for intelligent design. Finally based on the irreducible nature of consciousness the book suggests an alternative paradigm drawn from the Vedic texts of ancient India.

Rāmāyaṇa
The Story of Lord Rāma

Countless eons ago, when men and animals could converse together and powerful brahmanas would effect miracles, the uncontrollable demon Rāvaṇa was terrorizing the universe.

Unlike many modernized versions that are popular today, this edition presents the Ramayana “as it is.” The Rāmāyaṇa records the adventures of Rāma, the Lord of righteousness, as He struggles to overcome the forces of Rāvaṇa. This absorbing narration has delighted and enlightened countless generations in India, and its timeless spiritual insights are compellingly relevant in today’s confused world.

Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu

Hundreds of thousands of people throughout the world now follow the spotless path of Kṛṣṇa consciousness as given by Lord Caitanya. Chanting the holy names of Kṛṣṇa and dancing in ecstasy, they desire only love of Kṛṣṇa and consider material enjoyment to be insignificant. This book gives an overview of the life and teachings of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, the most munificent avatar ever to grace this planet.

Available also in Gujarati, Hindi (Newly Reprinted), Russian, Tamil, and Telugu.
Śrī Bhaktisiddhānta Vaibhava

Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī Thākura altered the course of religious history by reviving and forcefully propagating pure Kṛṣṇa consciousness. His boldness in combating cheating religion earned him the appellation “lion guru”—yet his heart was soft with divine love for Kṛṣṇa.

The result of over twenty years of research, Śrī Bhaktisiddhānta Vaibhava presents a wealth of newly translated material. Replete with anecdotes told by disciples who lived with him, this devotional, philosophical, cultural, and historical study gives intimate insights into the activities, teachings, and character of an empowered emissary of the Supreme Lord.

Śrī Bhaktisiddhānta Vaibhava is presented in three volumes:

Volume 1 features a biographical overview, plus detailed analysis of the message, mission, and personality of Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvati.

Volume 2 details the preaching challenge that Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvati faced, and also includes biographical sketches of several of his disciples and associates.

Volume 3 features an overview of Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvati’s contributions, with selections from his lectures, writings, and colloquies, also his astrological chart, and appendixes that include important details concerning Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvati and the Gauḍīya Maṭha.
Śrī Vaṁśīdāsa Bābājī

Śrīla Vaṁśīdāsa Bābājī was a great Vaiṣṇava who although physically present in this world, had little communication with it. His hair and beard were uncut, matted, and dishevelled. He almost never bathed, and his eyes looked wild. He wore only a loin cloth, and nothing more.

This book introduces us to a personality of such extraordinary, inscrutable character that we simply offer him obeisance and beg for his mercy.

Available also in Croatian, Hindi, and Russian.

The Story of Rasikānanda

Śrī Rasikānanda Deva was a mighty Vaiṣṇava acarya in the era after Lord Caitanya’s disappearance. Along with his guru, Śrīla Śyāmānanda Paṇḍita, he inundated North Orissa and surrounding districts in waves of Kṛṣṇa-prema that are still flowing today. He subdued and converted atheists, blasphemers, and dacoits, and even tamed and initiated a rogue elephant! The exciting story of Śrī Rasikānanda Deva is told herein.

Lekha-māla

With over one and half million books in print in over twenty languages, Bhakti Vikāsa Swami is one of the most prolific and published writers on Kṛṣṇa consciousness in the world today. Lekha-māla is a compilation of various of his writings that previously were unpublished or had not reached a wide audience. As with his other books, Lekha-māla is informative, insightful, inspiring, and a pleasure to read.

Viveka-śatakam

A Hundred Verses of Wisdom

This book is a trilogy of Śrīla Prabodhānanda Sarasvatī’s writings which were so far unknown to the public. In the longest of the three works, Viveka-śatakam, the author repeatedly expresses his ardent desire to go to Vṛndāvana.

In Caitanya-citrāṣṭakam and Nityānandāṣṭakam he delightfully employs selected words of unalloyed ardour for his worshipable Lords. Typical of Śrīla Prabodhānanda Sarasvatī, his devotional ecstasy as if leaps from his heart into his words and therefrom to the heart of the sympathetic reader.
